

Competency Reflection

Each statement below refers to behaviors or attributes you should demonstrate when interacting with children, families, or colleagues. Some of the competencies are directly observable during your typical workday. Other competencies may be assessed through conversations with your trainer, coach, or administrator. For each of the statements, select your current level of mastery. A similar version of this tool will be used by your trainer, coach, or administrator to guide their observation of your competencies in this content area.

①

Emerging

You believe you need more information to understand or incorporate a particular competency into your practice

②

Developing

You believe you have an understanding of the competency, and are working to properly apply it in your work.

③

Mastered

You believe you have fully mastered and consistently implement a particular competency

COMPETENCY		REFLECTION			NOTES
I Direct Observation		1	2	3
A	Provide opportunities for open-ended experiences and exploration.
B	Offer children ample time to express their ideas.
C	Ask open-ended questions about a child's creative expression.
D	Encourage children in their creative efforts.
E	Demonstrate interest and excitement about creative experiences with children.
F	Invite children to ask questions and explore creative materials.
II Observation or Conversation
A	Observe and describe children's creativity.
B	Provide input and guidance to families and co-workers about how to encourage creative expression.
C	Use children's language, interests, and backgrounds as the basis for planning creative experiences.
D	Plan a balance of process-oriented and product-oriented experiences.
E	Incorporate personal creative interests into children's planned experiences and activities.
F	Invite family members into the classroom to share their own creative interests and hobbies.
G	Invite families to donate everyday items (paper towel tubes, cardboard boxes, etc.) to support creative experiences.

Competency Reflection

COMPETENCY		REFLECTION			NOTES
II Observation or Conversation		1	2	3
H	Share and exchange ideas about fostering creativity with co-workers.
I	Invite a trainer, coach, or administrator to observe the classroom and provide feedback on the creative experiences and materials offered to children.
III Environmental Evidence
A	Provide materials for sensory play, such as water, sand, play dough, paints, etc.
B	Plan fun, meaningful experiences for children and families.
C	Plan experiences in the visual arts, music and movement, dramatic play, block and construction play, and science and nature.
D	Display children's work prominently in the classroom.
E	Offer materials that allow for exploration of sizes, colors, shapes, and textures.
F	Design environments so that all children can safely access creative materials.
G	Introduce and regularly rotate new and unfamiliar creative materials.
H	Provide everyday materials such as empty cardboard boxes, plastic containers, etc. for children to design their own creations.

Concluding Reflections on next page

Competency Reflection

IV Concluding Reflections

My overall strengths in this area:

I want to strengthen my practice in:

My plans to achieve these goals: